

Federal Reserve Bank

Operating Circular Appendix 2

Transaction and Service Fee Settlement Authorization Form

The Institutions named below agree to the provisions of Operating Circular 1, Account Relationships, of the Federal Reserve Bank that maintains the Master Account for the Correspondent named below and to the provisions of each of the Operating Circulars of the Federal Reserve Bank from which the Institutions obtain services, as those Operating Circulars are amended from time to time. By signing this form, the Correspondent named below authorizes the Federal Reserve Bank that maintains its Master Account to settle debits and credits to the Correspondent's Master Account for financial transactions and service charges for the selected service categories for the Respondent named below and for any Institution for which the Respondent acts as a Correspondent. If desired, the Respondent can report debits and credits through a secondary Routing Transaction Number (RTN) assigned to a Master Account for informational purposes. (Please complete the Transaction and Service Fee Informational Reporting Instructions for Secondary Routing Transit Numbers form to identify information reporting needs for RTNs within the same chartered Institution.)

Section 1 – Transaction Settlement

- Account Holder financial transactions and service fees for the services listed below will automatically settle in your own account unless you have indicated on this form that you want them to settle in a Correspondent's account.
- Financial transactions related to the Custodial Inventory Program, Fedwire Funds and Securities, and Fed Funds Checks may not be settled through a Correspondent.
- Transaction settlement authorization for Discount Window Lending requires submission of Exhibit 1 of Appendix 5 of Operating Circular 10 ("Form of Letter of Agreement for Obtaining Advances through a Correspondent").
