Encrypted email Service Overview

- Automated Clearing House (ACH) and Check financial reports are available via an encrypted email service.
- The financial reports are created, encrypted and sent to a password protected Internet portal for retrieval (pull option).
- Email notifications are automatically generated to alert recipients that there are reports at the portal awaiting retrieval.
- An Internet browser-based portal pull option is the default manner for accessing the reports. The encrypted portal can be accessed at <https://achedi.com>.

Encrypted email Service Overview

- The notification emails have a specific domain name. Check with technical support for the exact name and ensure that this domain is not blocked by your company email policy or by your Internet service provider.
- These notification emails might be filtered out before they reach the recipients (e.g. by spam filters). A best practice is to access the encrypted Internet portal directly each day to check for reports.

Encrypted email Portal

- For portal (pull) customers, the ACH financial reports can be accessed at <https://achedi.com>.
- Ensure that this site is not blocked by your company Internet policy or by your Internet service provider.
- Initial account setup and ongoing maintenance associated with the portal is self-service by the owner of the email address.
- The portal requires an account (email address) and password for access.
- The reports are retained in the encrypted Internet portal for 60 calendar days.

Encrypted email Portal

- Other optional products available from the vendor enable the reports to be automatically pushed directly to the recipient's usual email inbox in an encrypted manner.
- Additional information about the encrypted email vendor and the other separately-priced options can be located at the link below. Refer to the best method of delivery area at <https://zixcorp.com/>

New encrypted email message is available

Open Message

To view the encrypted message, click Open Message.

The encrypted message expires on Nov 13, 2018 @ 10:32 AM (GMT).

Do not reply to this notification message; this message was auto-generated by the sender's security system. To reply to the sender, click Open Message.

If clicking Open Message does not work, copy and paste the link below into your Internet browser address bar.

When reports are generated, portal users should receive a notification email alerting them that they have new reports awaiting retrieval from the portal. The notification email will vary depending on the email software and provider. Locate the Open Message button or link in the notification email and click on it. That will direct the user to the achedi.com portal where the user can sign in and access their reports via the portal.

If a report was generated but the notification email is not received, it has likely been trapped by a spam filter, been directed to a junk mail area or encountered similar delivery problems. The user will need to work with their email support area to resolve the issue.

Remember, it is a best practice not to rely on these notification emails but rather to access the portal directly every day to check for reports.

If the user does rely on the notification email, please be diligent to assure that the link directs them to the valid achedi.com Internet site.

There could be a phishing attempt where an email directs the user to similar looking but different Internet site from which a hacker tries to discover the user's password.

Again, it is a best practice not to rely on these notification emails but rather to access the portal directly every day to check for reports.

The reports are retained in the portal for 60 calendar days then automatically deleted. There is no need to manually delete the reports, but they can be manually deleted if the user wishes. If there is a need to retain the reports longer than 60 calendar days, the reports will need to be downloaded and stored elsewhere.
